SEGUIN– Rangers at Coletos Creek are making plans for another successful bow hunting season. The deadline for submitting entries for this year's GBRA Coletos Creek Reservoir Bowhunt is noon Aug. 16, 2013. The 16th Annual Bowhunt for white-tail deer and feral hogs will take place from October through December.

The bowhunts are restricted to the use of archery equipment and will be held on 14 consecutive weekends beginning on the weekend of Sept. 28 - 29, 2013, and ending on the weekend of Dec. 28 - 29, 2013. On the first weekend of archery season legal hunting is only allowed on Saturday and Sunday. For the remaining weekends, hunters selected by random drawing will be allowed to pre-scout and begin hunting assigned areas on Friday of their hunting weekend, and continue through Sunday.

"These yearly hunts that begun in 1999 to help reduce the size of the deer herd, have continued to grow beyond the carrying capacity of the reservoir's lands. We also need to reduce the number of feral hogs that continue to increase in numbers and damage reservoir property. Each year the drawn hunters see a lot of deer," said GBRA Reservoir Ranger and Hunt Coordinator, Curtis Seiler.

This year GBRA is adding an additional 500 acre compartment to the existing 800 hunting acres. These compartments are managed by GBRA around the reservoir but not as part of the Coletos Creek Park. Hunters will be allowed to harvest two antlerless deer and an unlimited number of feral hogs. Hunters may apply for the hunts individually or as groups of two, four, six or eight per party. Each individual or group will be assigned a specific hunt area. The fee to hunt per weekend will be $150/hunter.

To enter the random drawing for the hunts, send a 3.5" x 5.5" postcard that includes a name, address, daytime phone number, email address, a list of all names in the hunting party (maximum of eight), preferred hunt date(s) and hunt compartment (for those who have previously hunted at Coletos). Each hunter may submit a postcard in his/her own name. Please send to GBRA-Bowhunt, Coletos Creek Park, P.O. Box 68, Fannin, TX. 77960. Each individual is limited to only one postcard entry. No email entries will be accepted. Only those applicants drawn will be notified of the results of the annual draw.
