COLETO CREEK – While the quality of so many excellent photographs this year made selecting winners for Coleto Creek Park’s Annual Photo Contest difficult, Roger Zimmerman of Victoria earned “Best of Show” for his shot of one of Coleto Creek’s resident bald eagles.

Zimmerman also collected “First Place” for his photos in the Birds/Insects, Creative, and Reptiles/Amphibians categories, while Don Jeane of Victoria took home “First Place” honors in the Animals/Fauna and Landscape/Wildflower categories. Charles Gossett, of Victoria, claimed “First Place” in the People/Recreational Activities category. Valerie Vazquez of Cuero earned top honors in the Student category.

This year’s contest judges were members of the Victoria Photography Club and all photos submitted were in a digital format. All winning photos will be on display at the Coleto Creek Park office. The Coleto Creek Park uses submitted photos to help promote the many different activities, animals, and natural habitat that make the park unique.

In coordination with the Victoria Photo Club, plans are being formalized for Coleto Creek Park’s 2014 Photo Contest. Final details will be posted on the website at www.coletocreekpark.com.

The GBRA was established by the Texas Legislature in 1933 as a water conservation and reclamation district. GBRA provides stewardship for the water resources in its 10-county statutory district, which begins near the headwaters of the Guadalupe and Blanco rivers, goes on to San Antonio Bay, and includes Kendall, Comal, Hays, Caldwell, Guadalupe, Gonzales, DeWitt, Victoria, Calhoun, and Refugio counties.
