COLETO CREEK- Final photos for the annual Coletto Creek Photo Contest must be entered by noon Friday, May 16, 2014. Contestants must submit entries per the contest format at the Coletto Creek Park Office, 365 Coletto Park Road, Victoria, Texas, 77905.

Submitted photos must be in a digital format. Interested contestants may obtain specific contest rules at the following website: www.victoriaphotographyclub.com/other-contests.asp

Submitted photos must have been taken at the Coletto Creek Park and Reservoir, and photos will be judged by a committee consisting of members from the Victoria Photo Club. Winning entries will be displayed at Coletto Creek Park's Headquarters over the Memorial Day Weekend.

The Adult Division will have a "Best of Show" winner, plus winners will be selected in the following categories: animals/fauna; landscapes/wildflowers; reptiles/amphibians; birds/insects; creative; and people/recreation activities. Some photographers may participate in a separate General Student Division. The Best of Show and 1st Place winners in each category will each receive a cash prize.

Now is a great time to be at Coletto Creek Park taking photos, as spring wildflowers are popping up and birds and wildlife are in abundance.

By submitting photos to this contest, photographer entrants agree to allow the Guadalupe- Blanco River Authority's Coletto Creek Park to use and publish entered photos without further compensation to the photographer. More information about this contest is available by calling the park office at 361-575-6366.

The GBRA was established by the Texas Legislature in 1933 as a water conservation and reclamation district. GBRA provides stewardship for the water resources in its 10-county statutory district, which begins near the headwaters of the Guadalupe and Blanco rivers, ends at San Antonio Bay, and includes Kendall, Comal, Hays, Caldwell, Guadalupe, Gonzales, DeWitt, Victoria, Calhoun, and Refugio counties.
