COLETO CREEK – While the quality of so many excellent photographs this year made selecting winners for Coletos Creek Park’s Annual Photo Contest difficult, Mark Oberle of Victoria earned “Best of Show” for his shot of a Coletos Creek pelican .

Oberle also collected “First Place” for his photos in the Birds/Insects, Creative, People/ Recreation Activities, and Landscape/Wildflowers categories. He placed second in Reptiles/Amphibians and People/ Recreation Activities; and third in Creative and People/Recreation Activities categories.

Fain Zimmerman of Victoria took home “First Place” honors in the Animals/Fauna and and “Second Place” and “Third Place” in the Birds/Insects categories.

Dave Van Leeuwen, of Victoria, claimed “First Place” in the Reptiles/Amphibians; and “Second Place” in the Creative categories.

Roger Zimmerman, of Victoria, won “Second Place” and “Third Place” in the Animal/Fauna, “Second Place” in the Landscape/Wildflowers, and “Third Place” in the Reptiles/Amphibians categories.

Kaysi Neuvar, of Victoria, placed “Third Place” in the Landscape/Wildflowers Category.

Valerie Vazquez, of Cuero, earned top honors in the Student category.

This year’s contest judges were members of the Victoria Photography Club and all photos submitted were in a digital format . All winning photos will be on display at the Coletos Creek Park office . The Coletos Creek Park uses submitted photos to help promote the many different activities, animals, and natural habitat that make the park unique.

Working with the Victoria Photo Club, plans are already being formalized for the Park’s 2015 Photo Contest. Details will be posted on the Parks website at www.coletocreekpark.com when finalized.

The GBRA was established by the Texas Legislature in 1933 as a water conservation and reclamation district. GBRA provides stewardship for the water resources in its 10-county statutory district, which begins near the headwaters of the Guadalupe and Blanco rivers, goes on to San Antonio Bay, and includes Kendall, Comal, Hays, Caldwell, Guadalupe, Gonzales, DeWitt, Victoria, Calhoun, and Refugio counties.
