Coledo Creek- The annual Coledo Creek Kid's Fishing Tournament will be held Saturday, June 4 from 7 a.m. to noon at the Coledo Creek Park, 365 Coledo Park Road, located between Victoria and Goliad off of Highway 59.

The event is open to all youth between the ages of 2 and 16. No registration fee is required, however all children must officially register by 9:00 a.m. on June 4 to be eligible for tournament prizes.

Prizes will be awarded for the heaviest stringer in each of four age groups, (2-6 years, 7-9 years, 10-12 years, and 13-16 years). Youth are also recognized for the overall largest fish, largest bass, largest catfish, and largest crappie. Two additional prizes for the smallest perch will be given to age groups 2-6 years and 7-9 years.

This year's sponsors include Academy Sports & Outdoors, GDF Suez – Coledo Creek Power, Interstate Batteries, Janecka Insurance Agency, and the Coledo Bassmasters.

"Our event targets both young people and adults to help them discover the joys of fishing, and further develop an appreciation for our lakes, rivers, and the wildlife that live in and around them," said T. J. Hinojosa, Coledo Creek reservoir ranger.

For more information, call 361-575-6366, check Coledo Creek's website at www.coletocreekpark.com, or visit the Coledo Creek Park office.

The GBRA was established by the Texas Legislature in 1933 as a water conservation and reclamation district. GBRA provides stewardship for the water resources in its 10-county statutory district, which begins near the headwaters of the Guadalupe and Blanco rivers, ends at San Antonio Bay, and includes Kendall, Comal, Hays, Caldwell, Guadalupe, Gonzales, DeWitt, Victoria, Calhoun, and Refugio counties.
